Hot Spot Yoga, Pure Bikram Louisville is looking for two full time instructors. We can offer qualified instructors 7-10 classes weekly. We prefer to pay well, and ultimately, with full staff, allow our teachers a 7-8 class schedule so they can practice regularly. Louisville offers a seasonal variety of social, cultural and dining/shopping options. Home of the Kentucky Derby, and nestled on the Ohio River, Louisville has a temperate climate, but we do enjoy all 4 seasons. Slugger Field, Papa John Stadium and the Yum Center for the sports fans. Actors Theater and the Kentucky Arts Center, and the Speed Museum, are just a few of the cultural venues. The variety of dining is unprecedented from authentic Mexican to upscale French and Italian cuisine. My favorite Ethiopian and Korean restaurants are right here in my home town! Louisville boasts the historic and beautiful Highlands and the great pubs, and eclectic shopping of Bardstown Road. Horse lovers... just 20 minutes away, you can enjoy the pastoral horse country in Oldham County.

Whole Foods, Rainbow blossom and Amazing Grace Organic Supermarkets are with in 10 and 20 minutes of studio...Starbucks right down the street. ;) Local Kroger Stores offer a nice organic section as well.

Hot Spot Yoga, has been delivering the only Pure Bikram Method Yoga in Louisville for the past 9 years. We're growing every year, and we need to add more classes. Qualified teachers should have a current certificate, CPR, and knowledge of Mind Body Software is a plus. We will need references from several employers or studios you've worked for. We will also need personal references and phone numbers. International applicants must have a work VISA.

As of June 2011, we now have housing available on campus. Private bed room with half bath, fridge and microwave. Open and lots of light available. The studio offers showers and laundry facility. Each of the teachers or studio owners referenced above, have been traveling teachers or did their mentoring to open their studios at the Hot Spot.

Interested in an audition and a week or so of teaching to check out the studio? Please e-mail Kristin@hotspotyoga.com
